

Ford Meter Box Customer Service

At Ford Meter Box we know that customer satisfaction involves more than just quality products. The Ford Customer Service department specializes in providing solutions to your water distribution problems. Supporting the Ford Field Sales representatives and a nationwide network of stocking distributors, the Ford Customer Service Department is committed to providing the best possible product assistance to the water industry. They are professionals who can assist you in selecting the right product for your particular need. If you have a question, they'll provide the answer.

Shown on the map are the members of the Ford Customer Service team and the territories they cover. If you have questions about Ford products and services, give your Customer Service representative a call at 219-563-3171 or FAX us at 1-800-826-3487. We'll be glad to be of assistance.
